Catholic Charities Brooklyn & Queens Disaster Response Team

Catholic Charities was there to respond immediately to all those impacted by the WTC disaster-survivors, families of the deceased, rescue workers, displaced, physically or emotionally affected individuals and families, as well as persons who lost employment as a result of the disaster. Financial assistance, advocacy and entitlements, emergency day care as well as grief and crisis counseling were among the services made available to disaster victims.

Catholic Charities continues to offer free, confidential services to adults and children who need help coping with stress resulting from the events of 9/11.

Catholic Charities Brooklyn & Queens is providing the following services:

- Grief and crisis counseling
- Individual, group and family sessions
- Appointments arranged in a place convenient for you (home, church, community, etc.)
- Aid for displaced workers
- Employment services

Don't hesitate to contact us if you're experiencing any of the following:

- Sleeplessness
- Irritability
- Mood changes
- Flashbacks
- Feelings of hopelessness and despair
- Inability to concentrate
- Anxiety
- Panic attacks
- Loss of appetite
- Survivor guilt
- Increase in drug and alcohol consumption
- Trouble getting to work
