ABOUT CATHOLIC CHARITIES BROOKLYN AND QUEENS

For 127 years, Catholic Charities Brooklyn and Queens has provided essential social services to the boroughs' diverse communities. Operating more than 160 programs, the organization helps children, families, older adults, and individuals facing mental health challenges. Since 1975, it has developed over 4,000 affordable housing units, making it one of the nation's largest faith-based affordable housing providers. Each year, Catholic Charities delivers millions of meals through food pantries, pop-up distributions, older adult centers, and home-delivery services. The organization serves hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers each year through emergency assistance, mental health support, affordable housing, family services, and early childhood education.
